

RESPECT

To travel is to LEARN about other ways of living, of being and existing in the world. It's UNDERSTANDING that our planet is as finite as it is vast, that the human being is so identical and so different. It is to RESPECT that difference and to live it, make it ours, and PRESERVE its existence as it is. It's about SHARING it with those who are with us, with those who will soon leave, and with whom we get to know during our journey. Because traveling is just that: LIVING.
